KILL THE PROOF READER

The Lexington Herald, which has to wrestle with the writing of Desha Breckinridge and Enoch Grehan, and which formerly had to attack the chirography of Colonel W. P. Walton, is having its troubles with the proof reader—that is, it thinks it is. In giving an account of a fire at The Herald plant Saturday night the story said the firemen made the run in ten minutes, when the reporter had written two minutes and 14.5 degrees above zero appeared in The Herald as 145 degrees above zero, which is some warm, even for Lexington, one of the "warmest" towns on earth.

Monday morning, The Herald published a correction of the error, blamed the mistake, as was perfectly legitimate and proper, on the proof reader, whether he saw it or not, and then concluded the correction with these mystic words:

"The run was made in an incredibly short time and the damage was virtually nothing."

Now if The Herald will explain what the words "incredibly" and "virtually" mean to a wondering public we shall be able to forgive its attack on the proofreader, who, in the hurry of the makeup of Sunday morning, probably never saw the fire story.

Incidentally it is related that one linotype who got a "take" of Colonel Walton's copy told the foreman he "couldn't set that stuff, but if somebody would furnish him a trombone he could play it." Our sympathy is with the proof reader in this case.

MR. WALTON "COMES BACK."

Mr. E. C. Walton, who formerly owned and edited the Interior Journal at Staunton, but who has edited the Orlando (Fla.) Popular-Star, an afternoon daily, for the past two years, has purchased the Somerset Times of Mr. Cecil Williams.

Mr. Walton is one of the ablest writers in the state. He is possessed of a genial manner and an insatiable ambition, which speak well for the continued and increased success of The Times.

Mr. Walton is a brother of Col. W. P. Walton, formerly with the Lexington Herald, who has long been a power in the newspaper circles of the state.

The News extends to Mr. Walton a cordial greeting and the best wishes for unlimited success.

THEY INJURE CHILDREN

Cathartics And Pills And Harsh Physics May Cause Distressing Complaints.

You cannot be over-careful in the selection of medicine for children. Only the very gentlest bowel medicine should ever be given. Ordinary pills, cathartics, and purgatives are too apt to do more harm than good. They sometimes cause griping, nausea, and distressing after-effects and may actually injure the health thus establishing a life-lasting annoyance.

We personally recommend and guarantee Rexall Orderlies as a safe and dependable remedy for constipation and associate bowel disorders. We have such faith in the virtues of this remedy that we sell it on our guarantee of money back in every instance where it fails to give entire satisfaction, and we urge all in need of such medicine to try it at our risk.

Rexall Orderlies are eaten just like candy, are particularly prompt and agreeable in action, may be taken at any time, day or night; do not cause diarrhoea, nausea, griping, excessive looseness, or other undesirable effects. They have a very mild but positive action upon the organs with which they come in contact, apparently acting as a regulative tonic upon the relaxed muscular coat of the bowel, thus overcoming weakness, and aiding to restore the bowels to more vigorous and healthy activity.

Rexall Orderlies not only relieve constipation, but help to remove the cause of this ailment. They also frequently overcome the necessity of constantly taking laxatives to keep the bowels in normal condition.

There is really, in our opinion, no similar medicine so good as Rexall Orderlies for the purpose to which it is directed, especially for children, aged and delicate persons. They are prepared in tablet form and in two sizes of packages; 12 tablets, 10c., 36 tablets, 25c., and 80 tablets, 50c. Remember, you can obtain Rexall Remedies in this community only at our store—The Rexall Store, Phillips Drug Store, 56 S. Main st.
